MET COUNCIL ONLINE PRIVACY POLICY (UPDATED SEPT. 7, 2022)

This privacy policy ("Policy") addresses the privacy of personal information Met Council collects online in connection with Met Council's website www.metcouncil.org and affiliated links ("Website" or "Sites").

By using this Website, you agree to abide by the terms of this Policy (the "Terms"). We reserve the right to revise or make any changes to the Policy, and your continual use of the Website subsequent to any changes to this Policy will mean that you accept such changes. If at any point you decide that you want to delete any portion of your personal information from our database, please notify Met Council at info@metcouncil.org.

BY USING THE WEBSITE, YOU CONSENT TO OUR USING ANY INFORMATION THAT YOU PROVIDE TO US OR THAT WE COLLECT, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS POLICY. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO THIS POLICY AND THE TERMS, DO NOT USE THE SITE.

Information We Collect and Track. Met Council may collect and retain (i) personal information that individual visitors provide when interacting with the Website, or voluntarily provide on certain other occasions (such as via forms or in emails); and (ii) tracking data, which is automatically collected from every Website visitor (collectively, "Information"). The Information we gather may include your name, title and address (collectively, "Postal Information"), telephone number, email address, credit card type or other elements of personal information. In addition, if you contact us, we may keep a record of your correspondence, including any Information contained therein. You may decline to provide any personal information, but please realize that you thereby may be unable to register on Met Council's Website or to participate in activities or services offered by Met Council on the Website. The tracking data we record may include, without limitation, information regarding the number and frequency of visits to the Sites, the websites that you access before and after you visit the Sites, the Internet software used to access the Sites, and your IP address and Internet service provider.

Updated as of September 7, 2022

How We Use Your Information. The Information that we collect and that you provide to us is used for Met Council's business purposes. Met Council also may use the Information to contact you about the Sites or to request your input regarding ways in which we might improve the Sites. We may also use your Information to inform you about Met Council's activities, services, events, fundraising and education efforts which Met Council hopes may interest you. We will not disclose any personal information to third parties, except: (i) to parties who perform a service for us, such as sending you mail or email, web hosting, credit card processing, fundraising or other event facilitation, job applications administration, or other similar services; (ii) when we believe that such disclosure is required by law; (iii) to enforce this Policy or the Terms; (iv) to protect the rights, property, security or safety of Met Council, Site users, or the public; (v) to respond to an emergency; or (vi) as otherwise stated in this Policy. In addition, we may disclose Information to certain third parties if you have requested or authorized the disclosure of such Information. Information provided to third parties is limited to the Information needed to perform their functions. Met Council may make your Postal Information available to other, pre-screened, reputable not-for-profit organizations. This information is never sold, and if you would like to opt out of having Met Council share your name, title and address with other not-for-profit organizations, please either email with "Opt Out" in the subject line to, call the Development Department at (212) 453-9545 or write us at Met Council, 77 Water Street, 26th Floor, New York, NY 10005 attention: Development Department.

Met Council may use certain tracking data. Tracking data information may be used for a variety of purposes, including but without limitation, to compile statistical, demographic or aggregated information about visitors to the Sites generally, or for load balancing metrics and also may be used to create reports on user demographics and the traffic patterns of the Sites. The reports generated from tracking data are used for a variety of purposes, including, for example, improving the Sites and our services.

Use of Cookies. We use cookies to enhance your experience while using the Sites. "Cookies" are small pieces of information that a website transfers to your computer's hard drive for record-keeping purposes. The use of cookies makes web surfing easier by performing certain functions such as saving your passwords and your personal preferences in connection with your use of a particular website. If you do not wish to accept cookies, please adjust your browser preferences. If you choose to have your browser refuse cookies, it is possible that some of the Services provided on the Sites will not function properly.

How Your Information Is Protected. We take reasonable precautions to protect your Information from loss, misuse or alteration. We maintain reasonable physical, electronic and procedural safeguards for your Information. However, Met Council cannot guarantee the security of your Information. We are not liable for any breach of our systems or interception of our transmission, and we hereby fully disclaim, to the fullest extent provided under law, any liability associated with any claim relating to a breach of security, data or information.

Other Communications. From time to time, we may email users of the Websites information regarding important developments affecting Met Council. We may also email users on occasion regarding the Website. Such emails may be sent to users of the Sites even if they have not
